Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Isabelle Short has demonstrated outstanding dedication in the area of education for 33 years in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Isabelle's warmth and compassion for each individual student has contributed to their growth; and,

WHEREAS, Isabelle has spent the last 24 years in the Elkton public school system, of which the last 17 were spent as the elementary principal; and,

WHEREAS, Educators are molding lives and shaping the future of our next generation; and,

WHEREAS, Isabelle's teaching philosophy guided her to teach each one of her students as individuals, using love, patience and the desire to build self-esteem as her tools; and,

WHEREAS, It has now come time for Isabelle Short to retire, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 5, 1988, as in South Dakota, and join in wishing her an enjoyable retirement and in expressing gratitude for her exceptional contribution to the field of education and the art of teaching.

ISABELLE SHORT DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
